Introduction :- Odisha is one of the state of India. The name of Odisha has been change from the ancient name” Kalinga to Utke”, “Utke to Udra” and lastly “Udra to Odisha”. Odisha is full of Folk Art, Folk Culture, Folk tales, Folk Literature and Folk Song. Folk song is very popular and important. There are many kinds of Folk song i.e. Ghumura, Daab, Madli, Dandsi, Palia, Ghuduka, Sarangi, Geet Khudia, Chait Parab, Rasarkeli, Dalkhai, Jaiphula, Mailajada, Nialimali, Chapkarati, Bhamara, Kansla etc. Geet Kudia is our of them which is presented without any music. I have research in the field of Geet Kudia through my guide Satya Narayan Naik, senior fellow. Ministry of culture, Govt. of India. Geet Khudia is very very oldest song. It is a ocsar of song . I have collected a dry of those only. That may be secured as the memory of Geet Kudia in the field of Folk songs.

2. What is Geet Kudia:–

Geet Kudia is a singer by literary meaning. Male and Female both may be Geet Kudia and Geet kudian respectively. They get by heart a volume of songs and present according to necessity. Especially Chait Parab, Palia Geet, Dader Geet and Bajasalia geet are presented by Geet Kudia. Though the Geet Kudia sings those song , those are called as Geet Kudia song. So Geet Kudia is a part of Folk song in western Odisha. Here the singer is called as Geet Kudia and song also called as Geet Kudia. So people are wellknosin of Geet Kudia. There is no confusion to understand Geet Kudia. Geet kudia is implies to the singer and song also.

3. Language of Geet Kudia Song:–

Geet kudia song is composed in local language which is called jesia language. It is not written till now. It is only oral song. It has come from mouth to mouth through the singer. It is hereditary. Other men who has talent and interest , they may be Geet Kudia by their own effort. They have no Guru, they only follow to the seniors and try to catch it. So Geet kudia says which language, songs are composed in that language. The language of Odisha is Odia. But Geet Kudia songs are available in western Odisha. The language of Western Odisha and Eastern Odisha separate. Geet Kudia is property of Kalahandi, Nabarangapur, Koraput and Malkangiri district of Western Odisha. So Geet Kudia song are composed in the Folk Language of the above district. That is the mother language of concerned area. So that is the appropriate language of Geet Kudia which is understand by the people easily and enjoyed by them hearty.

4. Music of Geet Kudia:-

Geet Kudia sings Chait Parab, Palia and Bajasalia. Chait Parab and Palia Geet do not regular music. So singers present the Chait Parab and Palia geet without music. Only the voice, pronunciation and mode of singing in sufficient. When the Geet Kudia present the Bajasalia time Dhol, Muhuri, Nishan, Tasa, Jhumuka, are used. But except marriage ceremony music in not necessary in onether place. Geet Kudia programmer may be arranged in any place, any moment. So music arrangement is needy. The Geet kudia Present the songs on the way, in the market, in the festival, in Yani Yatra, which the Geet kudia and Geet kudian choice. It depend open them. So it is not possible to arrange music in this situation. Geet kudia song is successfully enjoyable without music. So it is fully music less programme.

5. Time of presentation:-

There is to times of presentation for Chait Parab. One is village or Public Program me and another is personal program me. Bhatra is S.T. Category. Which are found in Kalahandi, Nabarangapur, Koraput and Malkangiri. They celebrate Mandile Yatra in the month of January after harvesting. All the villagers worship their village duties universally. In this reswer period, villager give to the opportunity to the Geet kudia and Geet kudian to present Chaita Parab. In this way in the village festival of Dasahara, Dolayatra, Rath Yatra, Ras Purnima. Geet kudia and Geet kudian invited to recite Chaita Parabafor the success of rural festival. So they deliver the Chait Parab songs according to the willingness of people. It is the village programme of Geet kudia.

Personal programme depends upon the Geet kudia and Geet kudian when they go to the forest to collect wood, to pluck mangoes from mango grooves, to be hanged in the cradle, present the Chait Parab, and Palia Geet according to their own wise. It is the time of reaping the paddy in the corn field, following the bride and bride groom, purchasing of many thing in the market, they both like to sing Chait Parab and Plia Geet with their personal interest. It is also enjoyed by the public. They fly the programme personally. So it is called personal programme. These are times of Geet kudia and Geet kudian to present Chait Parab and palia geet. But they recite the Bajasalia Geet in marriage ceremony with music’s and in another place of village, fair, Yatra and market, they present without music. These are the times and places of Geet kudia song to have present.

6. Costume of kudia:-

Most of cultural programme i.e. singing, dancing and playing have costume of uniformity. But costume is not necessary for Geet kudia song. Geet kudia and Geet kudian have their as usual dress, which are used in their daily life. These are no separate costume for them. Geet kudia put on common Dhoti, Banyan, and Napkin. Napkin is used on the solder or on the head as turban. Geet kudian put on Saree or kapta Blouse and Saya. Blouse and Saya is not badly necessary only Saree and Kapta is very essential. Geet kudia fixes any secreted wild flower on chignon and catches on her hand. Geet kudia also catches a wild flower on his hand and act with flower sometimes. Both comb their hair with tale and castor oil.

7. Styles of singing:-

Geet kudia sing is not limited with one kind of song. These song may be Chait Parab, Palia, Bajasalia, Daab, and suang (Dance Drama). Geet kudia has acquired knowledge in above field regarding song (Geet). So he or she is designed as Geet kudia and Geet kudian. Because thousand of sons are but by heart and kept in their memory permanently.

Each and every song has separate style, Geet kudia and Geet kudian know every style of songs. When they sing Chait Parab, they recite the song as lorry Geet. They sing the Palia geet just like the dialogue. They sing the Bajasalia and Daab geet with physical dance as per the rhythm. When they sing song standard actor they maintain the style of is song. So they are collected Geet kudia and Geet kudian which means the talent of singer. They have present of mind, they are really to composed a song in a mean while. it is main caliber of Geet kudia.

8. Age limit of Geet kudia :-

There is no age of baz for geet kudia. From the youth, male or female take fast in every song programme. They acquired knowledge according to their capacity. Who gain the depth of singing, they close Geet kudia, they may be young, adolescent, adult or old. They present the Geet kudia song from their matured period to death. It is not their occupation but their practices of talent. The Geet kudia and geet kudian compact each other as like youth to youth, adolescent to adolescent, adult to adult, and old man to. This is the discipline rule of Geet kudia. Compition may be held among them with free and fair. It conduct smoothly, people get enjoyment in their tired life. They get freshness and change of mind. So geet kudi and Geet kudian give pleasure to the society for their whole life.

Examples of Geet kudia song:-

Especially most of people know to chait parab as Geet kudia song. Some of examples are written below:-

(1)

Gauchhe Bandana, Bhandargharani
Dakuchhe tora duare
Geet kudia je geet kudiani
Bhetimu Maadalpure
Dharai bee Maa phula sindura
Jai Banalule tora

The presiding duty of Dharmagarh and Nabarangapur is Maa Bhandar gharani. Both Geet kudia and geet kudian have prayed to Maa to bless them for singing chait paraba at Madalpur market.

(2)

Maa maa bali karuchhe aradali
Maa go Manikeswari
Chait parab geetar garab
Tame thile maa go sari
Tame thile ken heba chalei
Duru jiba palei
Maa Manikeswari Devi in the presiding duty of Kalahandi. Geet kudia and geet kudia have prayed to her to bless to victory in geet kudia completion.

(3)

Dabu gaon lage karanja kot
Gai maisira gota
Chait parab gaitire dhan
Tor mok nain bhet
Uchat manke kar akat
kaen karuchhu kapat.

Geet kudia is very senti mated in love. He is not able to sing geet kudia in the absence of geet kudian. So he has requested to her to come neaver for which geet kudia can sing the love song.

Geet kudia and geet kudian recite Palia geet also. Which is got by heart. Like chait parab, palia geet also belong to geet kudia. Some of example are written here:-

(1)

Jai Maa Kamala jai Maa Bimala
Jai jai Maa sarala
Tamar nam dhari, Bandana gauchhe
Kanthe basi kara khela
Jai Maa go Sarala
Haan kale dhegli aasu
Pada dia anargal, Jai maa……

Here geet kudia has pray to Maa Laxmi, authority of wealth, and Maa Durga, authority of power, Maa Saraswati, authority of education for his he can give some poem to the audience as a capable singer. Prayer is the first song of gee kudia. That is the tradition till now.
This stanza is full of love. Geet kudia and geet kudian sing the song of love more and more. Offer some of them has been eloped in the past singing love song. But it is considerable and excusable in the society. it is not the great offence.

These is question and answers in geet kudia song. Geet kudia has question to geet kudian, that which living being no head. So the geet kudian has answered.

Here the Geet kudian has answered to the question of geet kudia, that the crab is a creature of without head. She has criticized to geet kudia that he is not experienced singer. His practices is of a little days.
Geet kudia sings Bajasalia geet without music. Music is not necessary for geet kudia. Some of Bajasalia geet, which geet kudia recite, that is illustrated below:

(5) Rasara kelire,
Rasara rasana kire dhanphular basana
Take dhari bhagi jimi raigada patina
Raigada patna gale kaen ta khaima
Hate ache zira mudi gahana karima
Khande ache lal angchi sajani ochhai soima,
Rasa ja chalija re,
Ja chalija manke bujha sajani
Ghini demi khaja, rasa ja chalija re

Bajasalia has verity of songs i.e. Rasarkeli, Dalkhai, Jaiphula, Chapkarati, Nialimali, etc. These are full of love and lust juice of literature. In the above stanza of rasarkeli, Geet kudia has told to the geet kudian regarding elopement from native village to Raigad Patna. He has assured her for fooding instead of mort gaze of of gold ornament and for sleeping to use him napkin as bed sheet.

(6) Geet kudian says:-

Rasarkelire,
Rasara rasia kire dhanphulabasia
Phuli kane ghini debu juluki phasia
Juluki phasia kire haji nasijiba
Hate deli zira mudi nagara
Jug jug thiba, Rasa ja chalija re
Ja chalija dur ghuchija nagara
Budhi thile saja, Raja ja chalija re

Here the love element has been expressed by the geet kudian. She wants not only earning but also ring of finger.

(7) Jai phulare:-

Kani ude phara phara
Kani ude phara phara
Nua chhara dhari kiria kara
Jai phulare tebe jai dena dhara
Dekhile chahen le kariba kisa
Chhuin le lagiba dosa
Are jai phula chhuin le lagiba dosa.
Jai phula is one of the items of Bajasalia. In the above stanza Geet kudia or beloved has told to the lover that. He should take an oath not to be failed. Otherwise she cannot be belong to him.

(8) Jai phula re:-

Kia phula para jana ……2
Nirimala thile nijara mana
Nain bhangi pare dhana
Jai phulare , Kede jiba hati banaste chare
Jai phula re hati matia ked hare.

In the above line of jai phula , the lover or geet kudia has convinced to the beloved that wealth cannot defeat to the independent opinion without willingness love cannot be success.

(9) Dalkhai Re:

Phagune padila dala patara
Tui muin helu biha batara
Ketedelitate chithi patara
Khane nain delu tui utara
Are labaro
Tora Bebhara
Khabar dara ken dal khai re.

Dalkhai is also a part of Bajasalia. In the above stanza the beloved has tired more and more to get the beloved. But she could not succeed. So she has blamed him more.

(10) Dalkhai re:-

Sadake sadake jauchhe lari
Gode ghini deli rupa painri
Hate ghini deli tikili churi
Etiki muhansa dei ken
Jimi pasure
Are sunduri
Magur guri ken …Dal khai re…

Here the love has answered that , he has gift full ornament of both legs and hands. How can he forget her.
(11) Chap karati is also a part of Bajasalia :-

Mali phuti mahakila…..2
Take nemi bali mor mana thila …2
daiba bhagari kala re Chap karati
Kukura dakila rati re chap karatitara pure mandla bati re chap karati.

Here the love has expressed about his failure and have a great expectation for her.

(12)

Batara karela gaja….2
Dama dhari kari manake bujha
Jagithile juge rajare chap karati
Kukura dakila rati re chap karati
Tarapure mandlabati re chapkarati

Here the beloved has given consolation to the lover that, patience should be kept. Then success must be fruitful. This is the advice for the society.

Conclusion :-

As Geet Kudia is one of the most traditional culture of Odisha & One of the Major Folk song’s it requires so many awareness programme conducted by the people & by the Govt. Now-a-day the people are listening modern song & forgetting their own Folk Song & Culture. Day to day life they sing & love to sing modern song & western due to the modernization.

So if Govt. take some necessary steps like : Awareness programme, programme of singing Folk Song Geet Kudia in different Cultural programmes, Utsav etc & facilities of singing researching about the Geet Kudia song, under the programme of Govt. Geet Kudia must be developed without any confusion.

Introduction:

The mother India is our country. Odisha is our state of India. Odisha has 30 districts. Out of them Koraput, Malkangiri, Nabarangpur, Rayagada, Gajpati, Kalahandi, Nawapara, Bolangir, Bargarh, Jharsuguda, Debgarh, Sundargarh, Mayurbhanj, Kendujhar and Kandhamal are the tribal districts. These districts collaborate several festivals according to the local tradition and culture. Chait Parab is a tribal festival. Which is till now celebrated in undivided Koraput. It is also observed by the Bhuiyans of Mayurbhanj, Sundargarh and Kendujhar. Bhuyans are the ancient Hindu tribal. Who influenced the culture of other tribal Besides Odisha, the festival Chait Parab are found in Sareikela and Kharsuan region of the Singhbhoomi District in Bihar state.

What is Chait Parab:

Chait Parab is a tribal festival which is observed in the month of Chaitra. It is also a village festival because non tribal people also take part in this festival. It is known as Bijapandua among the Koya and “Bihan Chchina” among another tribes. Before the cultivation, the tribal people worship the Deity Biji or Dharani which is the name of Mother Earth Koya call that worshiping place Bijigudi and another call Dharnigudi. They pray to the Gudi Mata or Dharni Mata to offer Bija or Bihan which is sired seeds, and suitable for cultivation so koya call it Bija pandua and another call Bihan Chhina.

All the farmers want for good production in their farmland. So they think mother earth in the rout of best production. Without her blessing, the farmers can not get success in cultivation due to such devotion and belief Chait Parab is observed by tribal and village people. It is the mother “Bhumi Dharni Dudimata or earth.

Manner of worship:

The tribal people celebrate Chait Parab in various manners. This festival happens in the month of chaitra, from lunar day to full moon day. In such village the people worship to the goddesses of Land i.e. earth. Koya worship in Bijigudi, another worship in Dharni gudi. They pray to the Dharni deity with liquor and sacrifice the sheep, goat, cock, hen and pigeon. During the festival men of koya tribe go out hurting, fishing in group and return home before evening they unite themselves arrange fasts, drink and dance together.

Content of Chait Parab Dance:-

The koya men were huge headraces of bison horns which is decorated with peacock feathers. Women wear brass cap and hold sticks fitted with thinking bells which they strike during the dance. They dance in circle singer’s song of love. But another tribal people along with general people, women were as usual saree blouse, local ornament of body. The men wear as usual Dhoti, napkin, turban, Banyan and Shirts.

Music Set:-

Only Drum, Nishan, Taal, Tasa are used as rhythm only bugle is music instrument of Chait Parab. Drum is ……. And unusually long.

Time of festival:-

Entire month of Chaitra, the people of village celebrate this festival. They are busy from dark fortnight to bright fort night of whole month.

Variation in the Chait Parab:-

Some where Chait parab starts from the first day of month. But entire 15 days of Chaitra month are used as Chait Parab in different villages. In the Gudi of presiding deity ghata or kalisi made of burnt soil are worshiped as gadlings. The adolescent girls carry the ghata kalsi on head and move door to dore with the guidance of pujari. In the first fort night Bihan Chhina is observed and in 2nd fort night ghata or kalasi yatra is observed by people as Chait Parab. This function is continued in each and every Tuesday in the evening of such Tuesday the people arrange first of meat and then join in singing and dancing. Only Tribal women take part in singing and dancing. But men of all caste of the village can participate. This song and dance in arranged in the chaitra festival, so this is named as Chait Parab. This kind of Chait Parab is observed in Nabarangpur, Koraput, Kalahandi and Nuapara. So Chait Parab has little ..... in observing in many places.
Hunting and sacrifice in different places:—

In the day time of chair parab women arrange the singing and dancing at Dharani gudi or Bijijudi. The tribal men go to forest for hunting when comes to their sight. They can not leave even a jackal, that must brought by the hunter to the village and distributed meat to all villagers. So hunting is main programme in Chait Parab for Koya.

Another people do not go to forest not hunt any wild animal. But they sacrifice sheep, goat, cock, hen, pigeon, pig to the gudi mata or Dharni mata and receive the meat as “Prasad” of Dharni mata. All members of all family are given meat of sacrifice. So chait parab is the festival of meat. It in tradition and haridetry and culture.

Difference between singing and dancing:—

Singing and dancing both is vital part of chait parab. Dancing is limited, but singing is not limited. Song is comantic and full of love. Dancing also promote to the love and romance. Dancing is performance only in the month of chaityr pout singing is continued for the year by the coquette singer after chaitra festival also. So in the name of chait parab. Singing is till now alive in some districts. Two singers they may be male or female meet to each other start singing one after another. It happens at night and may be continued for more then one night. All people of the village become audience. They enjoy the song of chait parab for the whole night it gives pleasure to the people and entertainment in the busy life.

Language of the song of chait parab:—

Chait parab song in composed in tribal language and desia language i.e. local odiya song of tribal language in not easy for understanding that songs are limited in the tribal family. Only koya of Malkangiri, Munda of Mayurbhanj and Sundargarh sing Chait parab in tribal language so this song in not used by others or non tribal people.

Another song of Chait Parab is composed by local language i.e. local Odiya. Chait Parab song of this language is understood by the all people of Odiha. But used by a few numbers of people. They are called Coquette singer. They continue the singer at night for the whole month of Chaitra. After the month of chaitra, chait parab song is recited by male singer and female singer in any night they wish. It in fully romantic and love song. More people get by heart and present according to their leisure time at night. Young and old men and women act as singer of chait parab. Some examples of Chait Parab song are illustrated below.

Jai Jai Kali Maa Dakhin kali
Uluti sharan gali
Chait parab karuchen Arambh.
Mude Makhi padar dhuli
Duru Ghuchi jibe geet kudia
Maruchen tamke mudia

Chait parab is started from undivided Koraput district, whole old capital was Jaipur. Maa Dakhin Kali is the preceding deity of Jaipur. She protects to entire Koraput. So the singers sing songs of Chait parab, they start from prayer of goddesses Dakhin Kali. Here they beg blessing of Maa.

Gauche Bandani, Bhandargarhanini
Dakuchen tor duare
Geet kudiaje geet kudiani
Bhatimu madal pure
Dharai dee maa phula sindur
Jai bana udu tora.

Maa Bhandar gharini in the preceding deity of Nabarangpur and Dharamgarh of Kalahandi. Here the singers of Nabarangpur and Dharamgarh both have meet to each other and pray to Maa for her grace to bewine in the Competition.

Jai buda Raja, kali tor puja
Ampani ghati tale
Pandara ghodati basi dina rati
Kante thai sabubele
Chait parab gaimi geeta
Yudhe kara indrajeeta.
God Budharaja is the preceding deity of Kalahandi. In each and every programme public of Kalahandi as devotee worship to him even in Chait parab singing.

Maa maa bali, karuchen ardali
Maa go manikeshari
Chait parab geetar garab
Tame thile maa go sari
Tame thile ken heba chalei
Dhurun jeba palei

Maa manikeswari is the supreme goddesses of kalahandi. The singer remembers her name before singing chait parab. Hee earns the surety to defeat the competitor. So it is his firm belief to get that power of goddesses.

Dabu gaaon lage karanja kota
Gai mainsir gota
Chaita paraba gitare dhanatora mor nain bheta
Uchata manake kara akata
Kaen karucha kapata

Here, the lover is sentimented for the absence of beloved. Because due to that absence, he can not sign the chait parab his mouth is closed. Again to moderate his mind, he has wanted to the beloved.

Amapani ghata degikari kheta
Maidalpur hata
Rajara sadake bajara chhake
Dekuthimi tamke bate
Puri jauthiba peta.

The weekly market maidalpur of nabarangpur and ampani market of Kalahandi are the business center of both district. Ampani ghati in situated in the middle. The female singer of maidalpur has called to the male singer of Kalahandi to meet her at maidalpur. She has given word to him for meeting in love sense.

Aiba go dhani, nandapurari
Anapanira jatara
Sate baliphula kalahandir phala
Pachila kadli ghara
Pachila kadali ghara, ninidhan
Bheti demi kera kera

Here, the friendship of kalahandi and nandpur is well known. The lover of kalahandi has invited to the beloved of nandpur to meet at Ampani in the festival of dasahara. At that time the will receive the gift of kalahandi i.e. or branches of banana. This relation of trowth exchange is more and more sweet and clean.

Aibi ratiki degibi kanthiki
Sara bhat nindar bela
Kale kale bali, tati debu kholi
Kie na janila para
Kie na janila para, nini dhan
Tui muin missha bhira.

This Chait parab song is heard from Malkangiri district. The lover has sent information to the beloved to come at might when beloved will open the door with pin drop silence. Here the srunger rase of literature has expressed.

Purusha bhamar, gote parkar
Khane nain tankar daya
E, phulake soshi, se phulake sosi
Bhamar tutai maya
Bhamar para to na kara dhanga
Tebe hemi anga sanga
Here, the beloved has not wanted the person just character less blackbee. Having acting as a lover to be left out at last is not good for her. In this stanza love and lust the element of literature has been delivered.

E dale basuche bhaleri sua
Se dale basuche sari
Alga alga basile dhana
Misi heba keunpari
Jebe hebu mora gharar hari
Paribu bisas kari

The connection of distance is very loose and the connection of nearest is very strong. It is inner through of lover he has said that, do not be distant be nearest. Nearest can enjoy everything but not distant.

Panchami ratine udila jana
Janara pakhene tara
Sapanathi hela gharar hara
Khinisa khuala para

The lover is more and the beloved is star. Moon and star is very nearer. So their connection is permanent. But the attachment of lover and beloved happens in the dream. Which may be take or false. That matter is described in this stanz of chait parab song.

Conclusion : “Chait Parab” song is one of the most famous folk song of Odisha. But it is not is so developmental stage. Because the people are listening modern & western song & forgetting this Chait Parab song due to the impact of Modernisation & westernization. They use the modern dress, modern equipment & modern culture.

The Chait Parab song must be popular & developed if Govt. must take such type of regular & continuous awareness programmes & scheme for the development of the Chait Parab to the people of their respective areas or region, by the Govt.

In the above group of Adibasi there are different type of songs are seeing according to there own culture and tradition. They have been singing so many tribal songs in different occasions and Utsavs, Jani Jatra, Festivals, different ceremony. The speciality of Sall Gachha (Sall tree) and Mahula Gachha (Mahul Tree) are seen in the Adibasi areas. In the month of Phaguna (March) the Sall flower and Mahula flower became seen. In this time of session the tribal people start their singing. They are like: Santhal, Kolha-ho, Murela, Bhumija etc. start their singing, dancing by blowing Mandal instrument. Which festival is popularly known as ‘Phulara Parba’ or festival of flower, Basanta Utsav, Baha Parba etc. They create the environment of music in all areas. All areas became musicness and fall of music. All people fully engaged in the sweet music which song by themselves.

Not only the Adibasi people enjoy a lot by those songs but also Not-tribal or Non-Adibasi people also enjoy a lot and engaged in that programme. They all get together in that programme. There sweet music, Art, culture, tradition, of Adibasi people are shown. “In the Banamulakara Sangeet” there are so many tribal songs are included. So first of all we must know about the meaning of ‘Adibasi Loka Sangeet’ / tribal folk song.

The folk songs familiar with the culture of society. Special the folk songs presented and song in different festival, Utsav, farming work., Cultural Festival, marriage ceremonies. The folk songs also use for the interchange of romantic and love expression of young boys and girls. For classical music there is so many practices needed but in folk song written the songs the singer automatically sing the folk song it developed and spontaneous from their mind according to their wishes. So those song became occupy special place in the society and a major part of their culture.

The Adibasi songs are based on verbal things. The folk song which are verbal thing are not composed by someone. These are the gift of changing of their time, society and phenomena. Tribal songs are the different of social historical presence. Music is the listening thing and creation of time and period. Tribal songs are the definition of social and historical presence. Music is the listing thing and creation of time and period. Tribal songs are the identity of each social category and social institution. The life of the tribal people are connected and well related with their Dance, music, and songs, and these dance music and songs are their wealth. With these things their culture and tradition developed and they became famous recognized and popular for the above. They sing the song on and different mode and in different times and occasion like:- they sing tribal song during cultivation time, during Parbaparbani during Utsav, marriage ceremony etc. Their songs related with their daily life. 3. KARAM SANGEET:-

Karam Sangeet is the most traditional and tribal song of Northern Odisha. In the Baman Janma Ekadashi of Bhadraba month “KARAMA PUJA” celebrated by the Munda Bhumija family. In that night they perform Karam Dance and singing the Karam song. At the time of song they also perform dance with all male and female artist. The male dancer engaged in Karam dance by playing Mandal and Dhol. The female dancer join their hands with other female and performed beautiful dance by following the sweet sound of Karam Song. In the song of Karam there is no match of words sometimes. Some time they sing the Karam song in ‘Amitrakshyara Chhanda.’ The sweet sound of song arises. In this song the specially of Mandal & Dhol occur. The male and female artist sing the Karam song very happily by following their language.

The Karam song is like:-

(1) Bhadara Chanduhu Anagana
     Chanduga Muluhujana
     Dhola Dumanga Saditana
     Bajana Parilutana Durang Bajana
     Haausi peree Kala Kulika
     Jhalao gasaraka Durang Tanaka
     Banaha hana Juyasa Parili tana
     Durang Bakhana
     Jareyaa adibinti eli nua
     Karebu Chunakhin
     Elinure aman teman chakana
     Parili tana during bakhana

Song:-( Odia feelings) of the above song:-

     Aaela bhodua masa unlia janha
     Dhola Madala Sangaku gitara swana,
     Rasia toka tokia gaanti gita
     Na tha a mana gumana tha a sangeeta.
     Haandiaku chakhana jokhi rakhita.

(2) Aajatare karam raja ghare ghare duare
     Kalikare Karam Raja baansa nati pare
     Aam gajaku chhandu mananku bage kachalu.

Song:-

     Aaji achha tume karama raja
     Ghar duare,
     Kalithiba sabu baansa jangala
     Buda uhade.
     Aamba jangalara bhendia heuki
Jamu bana taka heu,
Bhala bhala toka bachhi bachhi bagha
Ghosari ghosari khau.

(3) Tising daya kala hanka ringi singi
Gapa daya kala hanak naachi gad marred.

Song:-
Toka mane aaji
Hasa khusi jete kanjaa
Mana mauja madi
Kaliku dharibu langala kanti.

In this way they sing the above Karam Song very traditionally.

4. DASAYA SANGEET:-
Dasaya Sangeet is another most tribal song of northern Odisha, which sing by the Santala Kolha (Ho) and Bhumija tribal people of Mayurbhanja. This Dasaya Song sing in the occasion of Dasahara Parba by them. The male dancer wear Saree and performed the dance and sing the dasaya song. In this song they also perform dance by moving and binding front side and by blowing the instruments. They bind the “Laau Tumba” in the middle of “BOW” and they push the thread of BOW and left them then a sound arise from “Laau Tumba.” The sound arise from that Laau Tumba so they call to that ‘Buang.’ During the singing of “Dasaya Song” they use ‘Buang’ instrument.
During the Dasahara Parba the artist visit to one village to another village and sing. The Dasaya song by Blowing the clapping and ‘Pita ghanta’ and say “Bhu Jandargbhu dandang”.

The mytholody of Dasaya Song:-
There is mythology for dasaya song. For the flufillness for Pitrusatya Ramchandra went to forest for 14 years, Which is popularly called “Banabasa.” With his brother Laxmana and with his wife Sita. During that time Ravana theft Sita to his queen in Lanka. At that time Jatayu Pakhi want to help Sita during that sad time. But Ravan cut the two long feather’s of Jatayu bird. The Jatyu bird lying on the deep forest in the sense out situation. At that time the hunters were searching for hunt and saw tha Jatayu and want the Jatayu for the hunt of that day and try to burn him and ate him. During that period Lord Shiva and Parvati had saw and try to give new life to Jatayu, Lord Shiva and Parbati went to the Pruthivi from their residence Kailash Parbat from Akash. They change their get as the Munirusi and Mata and went to the dense forest the surviveness of that Jatayu requested to the hunter. They give new life to the Jatayu. The hunters became very astonished and want that things how they like become returned. So they want to know some ideas and education from Munirushi. The munirushi fled away from that place but hunters were waiting to know more and more education of secretness and gave dangerous Sita from and attacked to Munirushi and Rushiani. The hunters followed the Rushi and Rushiani. At that time the Munirushi thought himself and give some education of secret to the hunters. But they argued that from if somebody will ask us about that secret education what will say about who are your Gurujees. At that time Munirushi and Rushiani shown their original look up as Shiva and Parvati. The hunter became astonished and happy to got God Goddess and sing and performed dance, which is popularly so called Dasaya Dance and Dasaya song. From the that Dasahara time the Kalapithias have been performing the Dasaya song and saying the other for getting guni bidya from the Shiva and Parbati. Kalapithias also known as the Adibasi people of Mayurbhanj.

During the illness of some body the Kalapithias went to the place and give their treatment. Each and all Adibasi get that secret Guni Education. The person who give secret education is known as Guru and who receive or gain knowledge from Gurus are known as Chela. This Dasaya song is perform during Dasahara Parba.

Song of Dasaya:-

The Chela start their Tantrika Sikshya from their Guru in the month of Asadhamasa Rohini Nakshyatra and they end their education in the Month of Dasahara. And in the Dasahara month they collect Dana (Money, Paddy, Rice etc.) by travelling different village for giving Dana Dakhina to their Guru and sing the Dasaya song.

(5)

“Akareda buaam janam lenare
Akareda buaam upel anare
Gurij mandere guruhanj janam lenare
Jabra gajalare guruanj upel lena
Chete lagad bua em janam lenare
Chete lagid buaam upel anare
Desh dalan guruhanj janam lena
Disam dalan guruhanj, upel lena
Desh rege guruha sunume sirdura da
Disam rega guruha ayanam kajarad.

Song:-

“Kouthi janam hele go tume buang?
Buang kouthi hele tume Abirbhaba?
Gobara Gadaru janamili guru muhin,
Alia kudaru thili abirabhaba hoe.
Kahinki buanga tume janam hoela?
Kahinki buanga tume abirbhaba hela?
Desha dekhibaku gurumun janami achhe,
Desha bulibaku Abirbhaba mun hoecchi.
Deshare rahichhi guru sindura o tela,
Desore ta chela achhi ayanam kojata.
From the above songs the first lines starts from the word of guru. From the use of the word Guru. It is clear that the students / chela ask question and Guru or Guruji answered them through songs. The Chelas were living in the Ashram and got the education, knowledge from Gurus, And the Good and Well relationship between Guru and Chela.

CONCLUSION:-
Odisha is the large Aadibasi populated state of India. There are so many tribal people have been living from the time of past with holding their own culture and tradition. Their culture and tradition have been related with their daily works. There is a specility Folk song with their daily works. The specials and role of folk song in their different Parba Parbani and festival also occurs.

But due to the rapid development of industrialization, westernization, township, the Folk song became undeveloped and hide in position. The specialty of the folk song became undeveloped position.

If Govt. will take such type of awareness tents and programme for its development and its spreadness and its upliftment the folk song must be developed and must return to its main street and will get its speciality and must developed without any confusion.

Arghya Bandacele Jasoda Ganga ru nira ani he ?
In this way halia song singing by the artists.

From the above way the tribal songs of Eastern Odisha may be clear but due to westernization & Globalization day to day the people are forget their tribal Songs & like, listen the modern song. As a result day to day life the importance or the tribal songs are decreasing.

So, we have to protect & develop our tribal & folk culture. Because tribal & folk songs are the most important part of folk literature, folk song was the first & main, important medium or the expressions or human beings feelings.

So, if we aware about our culture, about our folk song, tribal songs, it most developed in international level.

So, for the upliftment mat or the folk, tribal culture it need so many awareness program, street play, monitary help from govt. for workshop.

In this way the tribal songs of Eastern Odisha also not in the developmental stage. The people of Eastern Odisha forget their own traditional songs due to impact of modernization & westernization. So it needs so many awareness programme & economical assistant from Govt.

CONCLUSION

The above described tribal & traditional songs of eastern Odisha have their own significance. These songs are not found in written form as well as it is very difficult to get any material or books related to these songs. This tribal song is the identity of our culture and tradition but the cry for the modernization and western culture, has reduced the craze of these song. The relevance of these songs is going on decreasing day by day in the practiced areas also. So, I promise you that if I will be awarded the fellowship I shall do the research in this particular field and will try my best to find out possible solutions to the problems.
